WELCOME

Live. Work. Stay. Play

On behalf of the Marshall Area Chamber of Commerce, I would like to welcome you to our city, one of the best places in Southwest Minnesota to live, work, and raise a family.

Marshall is also an outstanding place to grow a business. Whether you're visiting for the day, looking for a new place to call home, are returning to Marshall, or are already a resident of our thriving community, Marshall is a city with a big heart and many opportunities. Our rich history dates back to 1869, and the Chamber was established in 1930 to advocate for and support the prosperity of Marshall and area businesses.

We continue to partner with local government and other organizations to pursue improvements in overall quality of life for the city, county, and region, particularly in transportation, education, healthcare, tourism, economic development, community development, and workforce development. Our success in achieving our mission and purpose is due to a collaborative effort from the Chamber Board of Directors, Chamber Ambassadors, City of Marshall, Chamber members, and area professionals.

Looking for things to do in and around Marshall? We have many options to help keep you busy.

- Enjoy sports? Theatre? Look no further than activities at Southwest Minnesota State University, Marshall High School and the Red Baron Arena. Don't forget about the Lyon County Historical Society located in our beautiful downtown district.
- Walking and biking around Marshall is a joy on the many miles of trails throughout Marshall and the bike ride to Camden State Park..
- Our shopping districts offer a mix of goods and services that makes Marshall a convenient city to shop — from your locally owned shops to the necessary big box stores a thriving town like Marshall needs to excel.
- Marshall is home to numerous and diverse faith communities, with over 20 structures representing more than a dozen denominations. We are confident that Marshall is a place where others will share your religious beliefs.

Enjoy your time here as you experience why Marshall is such a great place to live, work, stay or play.

See you in Marshall,

Brad Gruhot

◆ ARTS & THEATER

Experience the many murals, painted by local artists, showcasing the best of Marshall. Take in a concert or theater performance. When you visit Marshall, you will cultivate the best experiences in arts and theater.

The Lyon County Museum has semi-permanent and rotating exhibits on a variety of themes related to Lyon County history. Current exhibits include Making Lyon County Home, Lyon County and the Vietnam War, Life on the Prairie, Schwan's Ice Cream Shop, Where We Shopped and What We Wore: Retail in Lyon County, Schools of Lyon County, Lyon County Courthouse and the Heritage Room. And while you are there, enjoy Schwan's novelties in the museum's ice cream shop.

Take time to bask in the artistic talent of the many artists of our region with art exhibits, performances and education experiences presented by the Marshall Area Fine Arts Council. With rotating art exhibits every six to eight weeks at the MAFAC Art Gallery, be sure to come back often to explore some of the amazing art Marshall has to offer. While you're there, stop in the MAFAC Gift Shop where you'll find original paintings, prints, jewelry, photography, pottery, stained glass, cards and many more unique gift items designed and handcrafted by local artists. Books, written by area authors, are also available in the Gift Shop's Books on 3rd Street.

Catch a free concert at Marshall's Liberty Park in the summer, and MAFAC Performance offers a concert series of international talent at an affordable price. Continue to immerse yourself in the art of Marshall. Explore sculptures, murals and galleries funded by the Southwest Minnesota Arts Council. Enjoy an evening out with Music on the Terrace (located between the Marshall City offices and Main-Stay). The Marshall Area Stage Company proudly presents a number of performance arts from a spring comedy, a children's theater workshop, a summer musical, Shakespeare in the Park event, a fall radio drama and occasional theatrical productions.

Stop in the Marshall-Lyon County Library, with locations in Marshall, Balaton and Cottonwood as well as outreach services throughout Lyon County, for education and entertainment of all ages. Your MLCL card gives you free access to books, magazines, audio books, music CDs, movies, cake pans, digital collections, online services and more. The Marshall-Lyon County Library also offers a wide variety of events, activities, and programs for people of all ages.

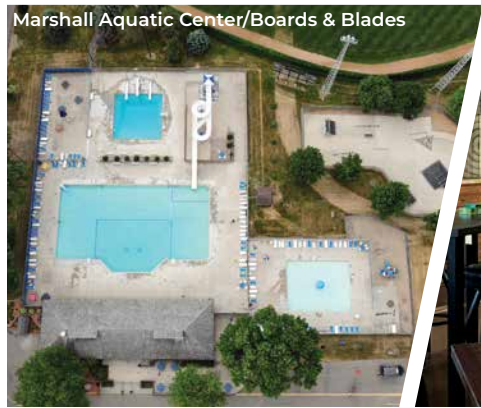

◆ SPORTS & RECREATION

Make a splash at the Marshall Aquatic Center (MAC) with a 190-foot water slide and one of three pool or have fun at youth and family nights or open swim. The pool is also available for private party rentals. The Legion Field Park complex, where the MAC is located, also includes tennis courts, baseball and softball fields, a shelter house, picnic areas and playground equipment. While you are there, enjoy a Marshall A's baseball game. Grab your skateboard or skates and head to Boards & Blades Skatepark to show off cool tricks in their three skate zones.

Find something for everyone in the family at the Marshall Area YMCA. Go for a swim or relax in the hot tub in the aquatics center, work out in the wellness center, go for a walk on their walking/jogging track, take a group class, play basketball or racquetball. And don't forget to bring the kids, because there's so much for them to do, too.

Fore! Get a group together for a day of golf at the Marshall Golf Club, a par 72, 18-hole course featuring more than 6,660 yards. The Pro Shop is fully equipped, and a PGA pro offers individual lessons as well as group lessons and instructional clinics for golfers of any age. Save time to enjoy the 19th hole in The Fairway. Or grab some pals and visit for a (free) afternoon of fun at the Marshall Public Archery Range, located near the MERIT Center, for target practice with your bow and arrow.

Take in a show at the Marshall 6 Theatre, a family-owned theater in Marshall with six different theaters showcasing the newest movies, or gather with friends at Wings Axe Company, an upscale axe throwing venue, featuring nine throwing lanes, food and a full bar, in the heart of Marshall.

No matter what season it is, whether indoors or outside, there's always something to do for those of any age and any interest in the Marshall area.

SHOP Local

Marshall has a rich history of retail shopping. You might remember stores like Wee Moderns, The Lean-To and JCPenney or when Borch's Sporting Goods was known as Poor Borch's. We have had many new stores come and go over time, but one thing that people can expect is that hometown feel of shopping downtown, but also throughout town.

Our locally owned businesses bring in people from all over the region, and our big box stores, new over the last 25 years, bring in thousands of people per week. It's an important part of the shopping experience in Marshall.

If you find yourself downtown, take in the whole experience of dining and shopping as well as exploring the Lyon County Museum, Marshall Area Fine Arts Council or our Marshall 6 Theatre. Lasiurely browse through 405 Loft, Kristi's for Women, Mister Cool's Clothing, Nessa's Naturals, Rustic Hideaway or Noble Woman Boutique. Find something unique at Columbia Imports, Marshall Floral, Music Street, The Note Gallery, Orphanage Antiques & Strawberry Fields Gift Shop, Graceful Marilyn Quilt Shop, Last Stop CD Shop or Treasured Times. Enjoy happy hour at Wooden Nickel Burgers & Brew or Varsity Pub (and while you're there try their infamous paninos). Grab a bite to eat at Hunan Lion, Main Stay or Mariachi Fiesta. And don't forget to stop into Walnut Grove Mercantile or Greenwood Nursery on your way out of town.

One thing you can count on from our businesses is their ongoing support for our community. They are all big believers of giving back and our local shoppers see that and go out of their way to support them.

Did you know 68 cents of every dollar you spend stays locally in the community?

Shop local. Live local.

Health CARE

AVERA MARSHALL

Residents and visitors in the Marshall area have access to a full range of health care services and local care options to meet their needs with Avera.

The beginnings of Avera Marshall date back to May 1950, with the opening of the city-owned Louis Weiner Memorial Hospital, named in honor of a donation from the Weiner family. A new hospital and clinic addition were constructed in 1977, and the name was changed to Weiner Memorial Medical Center. In 2004 the medical center formed a partnership with Avera Health to bring more physicians and services to the region, and the facility was renamed Avera Marshall Regional Medical Center. The Marshall City Council voted to sell the municipal hospital to the Avera system in 2009.

Today, Avera Marshall facilities include a hospital, nursing home, emergency care center, cancer institute, home care and hospice agency, outpatient services center, surgery center and physician clinics. The organization has nearly 750 physicians, advanced practice providers and staff. It is a member of Avera Health which includes 330 locations in more than 100 communities and nearly 20,000 employees and providers.

From regular checkups and routine sickness to serious injuries and unexpected illnesses, Avera offers options to fit each need:

- Physicians' office visits
- Virtual visits through the AveraNow app
- Urgent care for illness or injury that needs quick attention
- Emergency care for the most serious conditions

Avera Medical Group is committed to providing the region with primary and specialty care.

- Primary care — family medicine, pediatrics, women's care, internal medicine, behavioral health and urgent care — are offered in partnership with Rural Health, Inc. at the Access Health clinic at Avera's Carlson Street campus.
- Specialty care — general surgery, orthopedics/sports medicine, podiatry, cardiology, dermatology, palliative medicine, geriatrics, eye care, hospitalist care, cancer care and emergency medicine — is provided on the hospital campus on Bruce Street. In addition, visiting specialists offer next level care right in Marshall.

Emergency room physicians are available 24/7 in Avera Marshall's Emergency Department. A level III trauma designation from the Minnesota Department of Health ensures that expert care is available for trauma patients. And, when needed, Avera telemedicine offers instant access to specialists, keeping patients near home.

Avera Cancer Institute Marshall offers the latest technology and clinical expertise and brings radiation therapy and enhanced chemotherapy services close to home for patients and their families.

Avera Marshall Behavioral Health Center is a 10-bed inpatient mental health unit. The center provides short-term hospital stays for conditions like depression, schizophrenia, bipolar disorder and anxiety disorder.

History of MARSHALL

Marshall's first settlers arrived in June of 1869, when a group of three men and one woman traveled to western Minnesota in search of new land for development. The group, who arrived in covered wagons, included C.H. Whitney and C.H. Upton, who located claims on the present site of downtown Marshall. In 1870 Whitney established a post office in Marshall and became postmaster. Mrs. C.H. Whitney was given the honor of naming the community. She chose the name to honor Minnesota Governor William Rainey Marshall, a two-term governor who served from 1866 to 1870.

Marshall succeeded over the neighboring community of Lynd as the county seat due to its location and new rail line. The arrival of the Great Northern Railroad in 1888 provided Marshall with Crossroad status, thus greatly increasing its ability to succeed as a community.

By the end of World War II, the community began a phase of rapid expansion. The city's first and most dramatic success in the field of food processing was by Louis Weiner and sons with their company Marshall Foods. The Weiner Family Corporation included nine separate production units and were the first company in the U.S. to discover how to dry eggs, for which they received a government contract to ship dry eggs to Europe and Japan during WWII.

However, the largest impact on the community started when Paul Schwan built his own dairy plant on West College Drive together with his wife and sons Marvin and Robert in 1948. Four years later, Schwan's Dairy and Home Delivery was founded.

Southwest Minnesota State University (SMSU) was founded when the Minnesota University System chose Marshall as the location for the newest college. Construction began in the late 1960s, and the first graduation took place in the spring of 1972. Since that time SMSU has impacted the community and area development.

Today, Marshall is home to over 600 businesses from all sectors, including a regional healthcare facility in Avera Marshall Regional Medical Center and a strong manufacturing segment of businesses such as Archer Daniels Midland (ADM), Schwans Company and Ralco. We are home to a strong retail base that includes a vibrant Downtown district as well as a large big box district including Hy-Vee, Wal-Mart and Runnings.
