Marshall Area Chamber of Commerce Connection to Local Business, Public Policy, Economic Development and Community Events

Brad Gruhot,
Marshall Chamber
President

2021 is now coming to a close and I want to thank our Marshall area Chamber members and the Marshall community for a great year.

There were many bumps in the road this year, which was a year of recovery for many businesses. Our Marshall community persevered and rallied behind our businesses that needed their support.

As we - as the Chamber settle in our new location, it's our feeling that there is no better time to be Downtown with all of the happenings and positive changes here. This started with the new Marshall City Hall to the announcement that Ralco bought the building that Bello Cucina is in and that they are going to move their offices Downtown. There has also been some shuffling with some businesses moving within Downtown as well, but all for the better.

If you haven't finished your shopping list yet for Christmas, do your shopping here in Marshall. We welcome all of our friends from other cities to make their way here too. You won't regret the local shopping experience that our businesses provide.

From all of us at the Marshall Area Chamber of Commerce, Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays & Happy New Year!
