Today is Give to the Max Day in the great State of Minnesota. This is your opportunity to give to your favorite charities.

website crashed because there was so much interest in giving on their inaugural day. Since that trial run in 2009, Give to the Max Day has become an annual tradition. Every year thousands of organizations raise money to improve the quality of life in Minnesota and communities around the world. Give to the Max Day is not to be confused with Giving Tuesday which is traditionally the first Tuesday after Thanksgiving and is a nationwide effort.

launched in 2009 as a collaborative venture led by Minnesota Community Foundation and many other organizations committed to helping make our state a better place.

It's Give to the Max Day!

To generate excitement for their launch, they organized a little something called Give to the Max Day. That spark touched off an outpouring of generosity — $14 million in 24 hours. In fact, their Minnesotans are very generous and certainly don't need a specific giving day to donate to a charity but I do encourage you to go to the givemn.org website and type in Marshall as your location and then consider giving.

This Holiday Season, not only shop local but give local.

Have a great Thanksgiving.
