Marshall Area Chamber of Commerce Connection to Local Business, Public Policy, Economic Development & Community Events

Brad Gruhot
Marshall Chamber President

There has been a long belief that when the state tournament happens, snowstorms hit. The same could be said for the Boelter

Window, Siding & Roofing Home Show this weekend but don't let snow get in your way!

The Home Show is made up of vendors from every kind of industry that deals with a home. You will come by a realtor, landscaper, insurance agent, home renovator, roofer, home cleanout professional and so much more!

I encourage you to stop out this weekend and work with our LOCAL businesses in and around your house. Any Chamber promotes working with your local businesses and we are no different.

Don't let the snowy weather this weekend get in your way and show your support to the businesses that are taking a lot of their time this weekend to showcase their businesses.

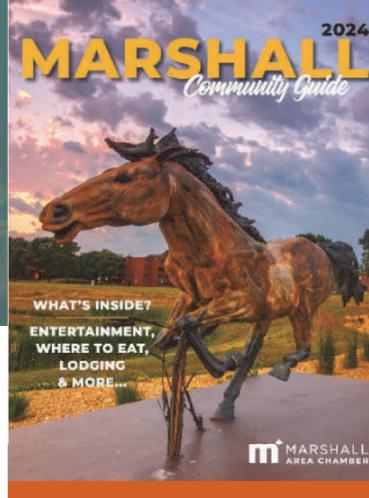

Also, be sure to listen locally to Marshall Radio as the businesses on display will also be running advertisements over the next several weeks! Check out the event online at: <https://marshallradio.net/marshall-home-show/>.

See you out at the Red Baron this weekend!

-Brad
