Brad Gruhot
Marshall Chamber President

As the school year for the area schools comes to a close, the warm months are now here! Let's talk about some of the things to do here in the area.

For the baseball lovers, a Marshall A's game is a must for you to take in. These games are free, and usually, you can find a home contest one time per week. They usually have games on Wednesdays, Fridays or Sundays. Find more at their website at <https://marshallasbaseball.com/>

The City of Marshall band concerts are now scheduled! Concerts begin Wednesday, June 3rd at the Liberty Park Bandshell. All concerts will begin at 7:00 PM and be held on Wednesdays through July 15th. There will be no concert on Wednesday, July 1st. The 4th of July concert will be held at Independence Park. Concerts are free of charge.

The Shades of the Past Car Show is the first weekend of June. As always, there will be a car parade on Friday night, and then the show is on Saturday, behind Runnings. For more details, go to their website at www.shadesofthepastmarshallmn.com.

The 4th of July Celebration will be bigger and better than ever this year as our Nation celebrates 250 years. This year, the annual celebration will be on Saturday, July 4th, at Independence Park - events starting at 5:30 PM including Food Vendors, Music by City Band, the band "DRIVE", and Face Painting. Fireworks will start at 10:15 PM.

As always in August, Marshall hosts two large regional events, the Lyon County Fair and Sounds of Summer, back-to-back weeks. These events seem to grow year after year and are definitely worth sticking around Marshall. If you are a planner and want to see what's going on later this summer, be sure to take a look at their websites at <https://lyoncountyfairmn.com/> and <https://visitmarshallmn.com/sounds-of-summer/>.

Are you a golfer? As always, Marshall Golf Course hosts several tournaments and other fun outings throughout the summer. Be sure these are on your radar! Check out their website at <https://marshallgolfclub.com/>.

One last thing! There has not been an exact date for the Marshall Aquatics Center to open, but it will be later in July if everything stays on track! What an exciting attraction for Marshall!

There is lots more going on, so be sure to check out our website at www.marshallmn.org and also check out the Visit Marshall website at www.visitmarshallmn.com.

Have a great summer! -Brad
